ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1872.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the Times"

Luther C. Challis has begun a prosecution in the New York State Court against Mrs. Woodhull and Jennie C. Claffiin for libel. Those women being now in the custody of the United States authorities, it required a writ of habeas corpus to bring them from the Ludlow Street Jail to the end that they might appear and answer at the Police Court. The writ was sued out, and in response the defendants appeard and the examination began. George Francis Train attended at the hearing as a sympathizing friend. Mr. Challis proved the publication of the libellous article, &c. The examina tion was to have been resumed to-day.

The golden wedding of the King and Queen of Saxony continues to be celebrated in Dresden with many festivities. There have been religious services, of an imposing character, at the churches, and state performances at the Opera House, at which all the Imperal and titled guests assembled in the city were present. Yesterday deputations from the army, the municipal government and the diplomatic corps waited on the royal pair and tendered their congratulations. The people are testifying their loyalty and affection by sending magnificent gifts from all parts of the country.

The Madrid Epoca publishes a letter from Cadiz, which tells of the reported discovery of a conspiracy to inaugurate an insurrection among the employees of La Cahara, the Royal dock yards, and the arsenal, situated about six miles from Cadiz. It is stated that the movement was of a serious character, and actively encouraged by the internationals. Upon discovery of the plot, a large number of persons were arrested, and it was believed that the would-be insurrectionists had been completely frustrated in their designs.

The jury of inquest in the case of the shooting of Isaac Boss, on the occasion of the election in Baltimore on Wednesday, met last night. A number of witnesses were examined, and their testimony went to show that the attack was premeditated, and made by negroes and men attached to the custom-house. Medical evidence showed that the poor boy, the victim of the shooting, was almost instantly killed by a ball through his lungs and heart.

The citizens of Philadelphia held a meeting vesterday at which an address was adopted expressive of the esteem in which the late Maj General George C. Meade was held by his countrymen and of the sorrow they feel at his loss. Gen. Hartranft, Governor-elect, was chairman of the committee through which the address was reported. President Grant it is said will attend Gen. Meade's funeral to-mor-

Yesterday, in New York city, Surrogate Hutchings decided that the bequest of all his real and personal estate to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, by the Frenchman, Louis Bonard, which was contested on the ground that the testator was insane, having been a believer in the transmigration of souls, is valid, as regards the devise of personal, but void as to the real estate.

The Supreme Court of the United States yesterday began the hearing of the appeal in the case of George Hill, jr., of Georgetown, vs. the Chesapeak, and Ohio Canal Company. This case grows out of a disagreement between the canal company and Mr. Hill as to the height above the bottom of the canal at which the water for his factory shall issue.

Charles L. Wilson, proprietor of the Chicago Evening Journal, and Andrew Schuman, managing editor, were fined $100 and $200 respectively, by the Supreme Court of Illinois, for contempt of Court in publishing several unfavorable comments upon the action of that tribunal in the Rafferty murder case.

Steps have been taken in London to send relief to the sufferers by the late disartrous floods in the northern part of Italy. Subscriptions for the purpose have been opened, and already quite a large sum has been received.

A telegram from Madrid reports that General Gaminde has been relived of command as Captain-General of Catalonia. and General Boleniti is annouced as his successor.

The barge Forest Queen, laden with lumber, was sunk in Lake Erie during the gale on Thursday night. All on board were lost.

Lewis Watkins has been appointed Chief Clerk of the Postoffice Department at Washington in place of Eben Childs, deceased.

The President Congratulated.

WASHINTON, Nov. 8.—The President was to day the recipient of congratulations from the members of the foreign diplomatic corps, who called in a body, on behalf of their respective governments, as well as on their own behalf and the ladies of their families, who accompanied them. Sir Edward Thornton, the British minister, was the first to tender his compliments on the President's re-election, and was followed in turn by the Russian minister, the representative of the French legation, and the ministers from Germany, Turkey, Brazil, Spain, Sweden, Peru, Italy, Belgium, the Argentine Republic, Portugal and Japan. The President and his family, attended by the cabinet and the ladies of their households, received the corps in the blue parlor. There were no formal addresses, and after each one had tendered his personal good wishes, the occasion resolved itself into a pleasant social Railroad Catastrophe.

BALTIMORE, MD., Nov. 8.-A little after 10 o'clock last night, a passenger train from the West, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad ran into a Pullman palace coach which had been detached from a train from Washington and left standing on a side track at Washington Junction, at Relay House, to be taken up by a regular train from the West. The Pullman coach was wrocked. There were only six passengers in the coach, three of whom were injurned. Charles Marsh of Woodstock, Va., was badly cut and bruised about the face, and his servant, a white man, was injured internally and probably fatally. Henry Jacobs of No. 36 Second street, New York, was injurned about the head and face, but not seriously.

FLY IN THE WHEAT.-We understand from many of our Frederick farmers that the ravages of the fly in the wheat are very considerable in certain localities. Some fields are entirely destroyed and have had to be resown, Rockingham and Rockbridge. - Win. News. feet:

THE FEWELL TRIAL.

Reported for the Alexandria Gazette. BRENTSVILLE, Nov. 8, 1872.—The third day of Fewell's trial has come and gone, and whilst but little was done in the progress of the case, a greater amount of interest than on the preceding day was manifested. On yesterday before Miss Fewell's examination was concluded the Commonwealth asked for an adjournment till this morning in order to enable Gov. Wise to be present with some letters which were considered by counsel of much im portance and material at that stage of the case. The counsel for the defence resisted the motion for adjournment, alleging that they would allow the letters, when ready to be presented, to go to the jury, after they were proven to be good care of yourself, darling, and just as soon those written by Miss Fewell, and the Court so decided.

On the appearance of Gov. Wise in Court this morning he rose to an explanation of his eeming dereliction of duty, and stated that Judge Sinclair sent a telegram to him on the 6th, which he read as follows:

BRENTSVILLE, VA., Nov. 6, 1872. To Henry A. Wise, 9th and Marshall Streets.

Richmond, Va.: To be tried; come immediately. Bring the etters. Chas. E. Sinclair. This he did not receive. He did receive one on that day asking, "Can you attend." To which was had this reply, "I cannot before Friday; will case be tried?" He inferred from the nature of the telegram which first reached him that the case would be continued if he could not attend, hence his reply. On the 7th another reached him informing him of the progress of the trial, and thereupon he started from Richmond and reached here this morning; but for this misadventure he would have been present at the inception of the trial. A motion was then made to introduce Miss Fewell as witness for the defence, for further cross examination by the prosecution; the Court, however, after reviewing the agreement of yesterday, decided that she could be introduced only as the witness for the Commonwealth. The Commonwealth then read six letters, written by Miss Fewell to Clark, five whilst they both lived at Manassas, intimating, in substance, her willingness to leave with him, four of them without date or signature, one written July 2d, and the last August 22d, after they had returned from their trip to the West. The letters are

'I have only time to write a short note. It will be a day or two before I can decide posi-tively at what time I can leave. But don't think I have given it out, for I would not for the world; I will write you a long letter by Tuesday's mail, telling you when I can go .-How short the time seemed last, night when we were together. You cannot imagine how delighted I was yesterday when I saw you on the pienic grounds. Can you remain until Sunday? Do by all means. I want you to go down to Church: Lizzie and I are going.'

This note bore no signature and no caption, endorsed upon the back was the following, written in pencil:

"Don't go to Bpossibly help; wait until Monday.

"What shall I say to convince you that I am not mad with you; and why you have taken up such an idea, I can't imagine; have I ever acted in any way to cause you to believe me angry? If I have, I assure you I was unsconcious of it, and I have never heard that you said anything respectful or disrespectful about me, except what Walter M. told me. I do not he sitate to trust you in anything, and indeed, I have already trusted you to a great extent. In regard to fishing, I can go at any time, whenever convenient to you. I will be ready, and your company on the creek will be perfectly agreeable. I have never heard that any one ever suspected us, but for fear that this might get lost, I had rather you would destroy it immediately. Don't stay longer in Fredericksburg. No. 3, written in pencil, and very faint. "I can't leave Monday, as I expected, but will go after the fourth of July. Mrs. H. tells me you expect to leave for B. to-morrow. But, darling, try and put your trip off until the first of next week. We think of having a dance tomorrow night. I expect you by all means to be there. Don't ihink my seeming negligence is was a small man, weig an indication that my feelings towards you are pounds; did not know Clark. changed, but you become dearer to me every day, and I agree with you in the arrangements you have made for me to leave with you, and hope it will not be long before we can be together to be separated no more. Do, for my sake, defer your trip until the last of the week. Goodbye, darling. Yours until death. Destroy at once." No signature and no date. [No. 4.] "I long for the sound of the freight whistle, and still I dread for fear my darling will not come, but will hope for the best. And just to think he is going to leave so soon again—going off on the 12 o'clock train to B. Now you could not defer your trip to-day, but I know you can to-night. We are all going after raspberries tomorrow, about two miles down the road, and I want you to go, and may be we will have a chance to have a little talk. Now do this, pet, for your

This note had no signature and no date.

[No. 5.] "At Home, July 2, 1872.—My own Darling: According to promise I seat myself this morning, not at home—but you can guess—to ask you if you don't think it best to come back once more before we leave; you have left many things which I think you will need, and I would like to make some arrangements in regard to getting my clothes away; but if you think it impossible for you to return, don't you think it best that I should express them to you? I can do it with safety. I have considered the matter, that is, about leaving Friday, and think that ing, don't be angry, for I assure you I am doing this for the best. I am anxious for the time to arrive when we shall be together, as much so as you are, but don't think it prudent that I should leave Friday. The time has weighed heavily since you left; the days have seemed weeks. I would like for you to be here to-morrow night any how. Everybody expects you back, and come if you possibly can. Lizzie wants to know what is to be done with all your clothes you have left here. R. came this morning and got all the soiled ones to do up. I find that I can leave either on the passenger or the freight without any one finding me out, but tell me which you think will be the best. If you can't come up to-morrow, write a long letter to Lizzie telling me what to do. I will have to stop writing and go home immediately. Lizzie joins me in love to my little darling."

No signature. [No. 6.]

"Washington, D. C., Aug. 22 .- Oh, my darling! For God sake come back as soon as possi-ble; there is a great long piece in the Baltimore paper, and it says you ran off with the agent's daughter from Manassas, and that you have a wife and three children.

"Oh God, what are we to do? Come to me at once. I am cast off from them all at home; you are all that I have to look to, and don't leave, but come right back to me. Mr. Gale came up here and told me of it just now. He says he heard some one making remarks about it, and told them it was another man. Please, darling, come back to me to-morrow. I am so nervous I can scarcely hold the pen. Don't fail to come

"My Darling Little Girl: I telegraph this morning, as soon as I reached here and got my breakfast and although it is now after three probable I have not heard a word from the state of the o'clock, I have not heard a word from them. I truly and greatly hope to hear to-day, so as to have you come up to-night, and I could meet you and go on to Cincinnati but have been disappointed. If you knew how I have felt, darling sings I laft you would never daylet. ling, since I left you, you would never doubt or distrust me, I never feit as lonely and miserable in my life. If I don't hear by eight o'clock tonight I am going to Cincinnati to night; will get there by 8 o'clock in the morning, and if I do not hear from them to-morrow, I will go on to Washington and send you money back from there. Oh, how I do hate this arrangement, Cincinnati by yourself, anyhow. If you do, you can take the night train at Mexico, and get to Cincinnati at 9 next night, and I will meet you him as his wife, Mrs. Clark; after Mr. Dudley's and I am really afraid you will have to come to then, if possible. Don't get mad with me, darling, or discouraged because of the delay, for, as God is my judge, it is no fault of mine. Take as I can hear I will telegraph you. "Yours, devotedly.

"August 13, 1872. To Mrs. Fannie S. Clark, 59 Ringo House, Mexico, Adrian county, Mo."
The "them" to which the letter alludes are friends from which Clark expected to procure

The second letter was written the same day, and addressed like the first : "My Darling Little Girl: In addition to what I wrote this evening I think it best to write again. It is now 5 o'clock, and still no answer. If I do not hear by half-past eight I shall go to Cincinnati to night, and if in no other way will borrow enough to bring you to that place, and send it to you, so that you can leave to-morrow night. Oh, darling, if I only had you with me we were conversing the conductor of the train to-night. You do not know how much I missed your dear little hand on my own in the train. When you get on the train, get the conductor to and claimed me as his guest; he offered to carry the conductor to the train get the conductor to and claimed me as his guest; he offered to carry the conductor to the train get the conductor of the train to have the conductor to have th see that your baggage is properly attended to, if ry me to a hotel and pay my bills; his name you want to change cars here. I will send you was Marsh; the policeman, Mr. Kinney, told a money order, and you can collect it yourself. me that the conductor was a single man, and want you to take the letters and photograph out of the trunk and put them in your pocket You know the photograph I mean, the picture of somebody when she was small. I believe, though, it is an ambrotype and is in the bottom of the trunk. If it should be so that I cannot met you at the depot at Cincinnati, you must go to the Galt House and register as Mrs. J. M. Moore, N. C., and I will find you It may be that I cannot get off from Taylor Thornton, but I do not apprehend any difficult. I will send you a telegraph money-order for enough to get you a t.eket to Washington and to pay your expenses to Cincinnati, and after you get there I will meet you. Bring away all letters that may come for me. I hope to be with you in a day or two, darling, and until then I hope you will try to be happy. You can tell Mr. Ringo that I could not return as expected, and will send him whatever I may not have paid him. If you leave to-morrow night you will get to Cincinnati Thursday night at 9. Good-bye till we meet. Ever and devotedly yours. Destroy these letters, or take mighty good care of them.

The photograph informed to is one of his

The photograph referred to is one of his wife's taken when very young.

These two letters, Miss Fewell testified, were sent to Mexico after her departure from that point, and forwarded to Manassas, where they were taken into the possession of her family, and kept from her sight. The third letter dated Fredericksburg, and which was handed Miss F. at Boyle's Hotel, in Washington, signed "Jim," and in which the expression "As bad a little flirt as you are, I am not afraid to trust you," is used, has heretofore been published in the Gazette. Wm. Wright, conductor of the freight train on which Miss F. left Manassas, was the first witness in rebuttal. Examination by Mr. Menifee-I was in charge of the train on which Miss F. went off; left Manassas at 12:39 a. m.; after starting the train Mr. Fewell came out and requested me he seemed astonished and exclaimed to stop it; I did so and he went through the God, how did you manage to get here?" monstrated gently with her; told her that I made up her mind to go; arrived at Alexandria 5:30, and there saw a hack, to which I

By Gov. Wise-She said she was going to marry a man by the name of Lee; stated she was about sixteen.

Cross examination by Judge Thomas-Heard Miss F.'s testimony yesterday; so far as she went I think it was correct; the man she met was a small man, weighing about 130

At one o'clock Gov. Wise asked the Court to adjourn till to-morrow morning, as two of the witnesses for the Commonwealth were not present and could not get here until to-morrow morning. Considerable discussion ensued on both sides. The Court decided to adjourn in order to allow these witnesses to be present.

TESTIMONY OF MISS FANNIE FEWELL. The following is Miss Fewell's testimony: My name is Fannie Sandford Fewell; I was exteen the 29th of last June; I became acquainted with Clark when he first moved to tively that he was married, but had never Manassas; had heard of him before; while heard it denied, and believed such to be the we lived at Manassas we met frequently; I saw a great deal of him during this time; I left home July 21st. 1872; was persuaded to do not know how long our intimacy had lastleave by the seductions of Mr. Clark; I met ed before Mr. Clerk's family left Manas-Clark at the depot in Alexandria; he was sas; they went to her father's; I inquired, and standing on the pavement, near the track; the | was told that they did not live happly together; conductor escorted me to the carriage; left after they had been gone some time I received a Alexandria at 3 a. m.; we drove towards Wash- | note from Mr. Clark asking me to meet him at ington; I thought we were going to stop in Mrs. Hynson's, in which he said that he was that city, but am told we went directly to Bla- | separated from his wife, and wanted to see more densburg, which I thought was a part of the of me now; I went to Mrs. Hynson's that suburbs of Washington, we procured tickets | night, and met Mr. Clark there, as I had here and went to Baltimore; arrived there | done several times before; the following day he about 6 a. m., and drove to the Rennert House; | wrote a note asking me to go away to Washing-Clark accompanied me; remained during the | ton with him and be married; on being assured day, and left about eight the following morn- that he was divorced I agreed to this; did not ing; Mr. Clark had promised before I left feel that it was morally wrong for Mr. Clark to Virginia to marry me when I reached Wash- pay his addresses to me under the circumstanwill be rather soon after your departure. It will be rather soon after your departure. It lington; when we arrived in Bladensburg I asklittle longer. I can let you know this week at what time I will be ready to leave. Now, daritoo early in the morning; asked him again every assurance that he was an unmarried too early in the morning; asked him again every assurance that he was an unmarried when we reached Baltimore to marry me; he man; was also told he was divorced by Mrs. said it was impossible-that he was a married Hynson, who said she had letters in her possesman, and it would be bigamy, a penitentiary offense, to marry while he had a wife living; this conversation occurred in my room, after supper; Clark then went down into the office of the hotel; about ten o'clock he returned to an emissary of Clark's; his name is Hartman, my room, he found me in tears, and told me and he staid at Boyle's Hotel; I paid my own that I might as well become resigned to my fare down; the conductor remonstrated with fate; that if I had made a sacrifice in leaving me, and advised me to return to my fathhome with him, he also had made sacrifices er; upon his insisting on this I again refused for me; I told him if he did not intend to and told him if returned against my consent marry me I would return to my home; he would seek the first opportunity to escape, and said that our fates were linked irrevocably, that | find him, (referring to Clark;) the man who I had taken a step which I could not recall, came for me was a stranger; the first night apthat my family would not receive me, and the pointed for my elopement I was not ready world would not believe me faultless; he also said that if I left him then he would leave me, and I would have no protector; we registered Clark told me to reply "Mr. Lee," if any one at the Rennert House as Mr. Green and wife. asked me whom I was going to marry; he had From Baltimore we went to Rochester, N. Y., supplied me with fifty dollars, through Mrs.

him to the "Ringo House;" Mr. Dudley was left in the saloon, and Mr. Clark came into my room and prepared me to be presented as his wife; he said if Dudley had a photograph of Mrs. Clark he would treat the subject of our marriage as if it were a ruse to amuse his friend, and then say that I was his cousin travelling with him; Mr. D. was introduced and suspected visit Mr. Clark assumed his right name: Mr. Clark remained with me two weeks and then started for St. Louis; while he was in St. Louis I received a letter from him; he also wrote to the clerk, telling him to advise me to come on to Cincinnati; I was then without means, and the hotel bill was still unpaid; I asked the clerk what I was to do; he sent for Mr. Patten and Mr. Ringo, proprietor of the hotel; they bought me a ticket to Cincinnati: Mr. Ringo detained my clothes to secure his hotel bill: Mr. Clark said he would meet me in Cincinnation I arrived there about six in the morning; I remained in the ladies' sitting-room of the depot until 11 in the day, looking for Mr. Clark; about midday a policeman, observing my dis turbed manner, approached me and inquired what I was waiting for; I told him my story, and he declared that I was abandoned; while we were conversing the conductor of the train warned me to have nothing to do with him; he invited me to go home with him and let his wife take care of me; I accompanied him; in the meantime the policeman interested himself in my behalf; I staid at his house until the next day; a proposition was made to send me to the Home of the Friendless; the telegraph operator sent me a message saying that Clark had been at the office and dispatched an order for $31 to Mexico, and that I could get the money by calling upon him; I went twice; each time the operator said Clark had just been there: I saw a notice in a Cincinnati paper that a man by the name of Clark had deserted his wife, and that she was without money or friends in that city; a few days aftetwards a publication appeared in the same journal congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Clark upon having met by accident on the train, as they were each going east in search of the other; this paragraph was utterly false; I did not see Clark from the time I left Mexico until I arrived in Washington, through Mr. Kinney's exertions I obtained a ticket for Washington; I had only a dollar when I left Mexico; by this time it was all expended, I reached Washington about 10 p. m.; had heard Mr. Clark speak of a friend who was clerk at Boyle's Hotel; I knew no one in Washington; called a policeman and asked him to conduct me to Boyle's Hotel; inquired if John R. Lee was registered there; he replied "Yes," and went to the room which he thought Clark occupied; he returned and said he was not in his room, and had probably left the city; I asked to be shown to a room; this was Sunday night; in a short time the clerk knock ed at my door and said he had mistaken another for Mr. Clark's room, and that he had just entered the hotel; I requested that he should be brought to me; when he entered my room caboose; when about a mile and a half from Clark spent this night with me; when I awoke in Kezleton, in that county and committed to emaciated form. Here a group of ladies from the place I observed an old gentleman who I examined my pocket-book, and found $26 of jail in Harrisonburg, charged with committing Virginia, and there another from Kansas; here appeared to be very restless; soon after I saw a the $30 which I had when I arrived in Wash; an outrage upon Miss Hannah Bell Dixon, a is a man from San Francisco, and one from appeared in the Cincinnati Commercial setting was much older than she, and advised her to forth that Mrs. Clark had been abandoned by return to her father; she said she had fully her husband and was in that city in a destitute condition; he said this might be seen by my family and lead them to search more diligently escorted her; I saw a man on the pavement; for me; he announced his intention to go to they saluted each other; he helped her into the | Fredericksburg and collect some money that hack and got in with her; the old man got in was due him there; he asked me to lend some more of what I had left; he took five dollars: then had a two dollar note and some small change remaining; he left me the same morning (Monday) for Fredericksburg, telling me that I must still pass as Mrs. J. R. Lee: I staid here until Saturday night, August 24th, 1872, never during that time having left the hotel but on one occasion, and then in company with > chant, my brother-in-law. The examination in chief of Miss Fewell here closed. It was conducted by Judge Thomas.

Mr. Clark; I was brought away by Mr. Mer-

The defence proposed to introduce Thomas M. Sullivan, a policeman, from Washington, but the court declined to receive his evidence. Cross-examination. - Made Mr. Clark's acquaintance in June last, at Mr, Hynson's ; he was then living at Manassas, and had a wife and two children; had no reason to know postcase; did not accept Mr. Clark's advances until I supposed he was divorced from his wife : sion to confirm this statement; knew that I was deceived and ought not to remain with him longer than the night we spent in Baltimore; but where could I go; I left Manassas with when the train passed; the following night my without change of cars; remained there two or Hynson, to meet my expenses: when we reachthree days; from Rochester we went to De- ed Alexandria the conductor escorted me about troit; reached that city at 9 p. m.; left next a square, and we found Mr. Clark in waiting morning at 7 a. m. for Chicago; reached there | with a hack: I had been receiving notes from Saturday night; did not leave Chicago until Mr. Clark for about a month before I agreed 10 o'clock Monday morning; did not go to to leave home; at Manassas I lived with Mr. church Suuday, but drove out to Lincoln Park D. B. Merchant; did not receive Mr. Clark's with Clark in a hack; in Chicago we registered visits at their house; they did not like him, and not to come, instead of several thousands for as Mr. and Mrs. Paxton; on leaving Chicago discouraged our growing intimacy; we passed dancing. went to Palmyra, then to Hannibal, where re- the night in Baltimore together as man and the Ringo House, where we were stopping, and | hands of the Governor.

THE ELECTION.

The Baltimore Sun, of this morning, says:— The returns of election from Virginia indicate continued heavy Radical gains. The majority the sloping side of the mountain, on the east for Grant is estimated at 3,000, and it is of the Genesee Valley, and about half a mile thought that four and probably five Radical Congressmen are elected. The returns from Missouri indicate a Democratic majority in the Legislature, which, if correct, ensures the reelection of Senator Blair, the defeat of which called. was predicted in dispatches to the President yesterday. Alabama is reported to have gone for Grant, probably by four or five thousand. Louisiana still claims to have been carried by the Republicans. Tennessee gives probably 10,000 majority for Greeley.

The President, in conversation yesterday, said that he had never doubted the result, and had felt confident from the moment the coalition at Baltimore was perpetrated that he should be elected by quite as large an electoral vote as he received in 1868.

Among the telegrams received by President Frant yesterday, was the following:

RICHMOND, Nov. 6.—In '69 R. T. Daniels, chairman of the true Republican committee, did what I now sincerely do-congratulate you on the success of your policy in Virginia. We have carried the State beyond a doubt.

JOHN W. WOLTZ, Sect'y.

Virginia.

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—The maorities thus far reported are, Sener 1,315, Braxton 1,159; Sener's majority 156. If the Conservative counties yet to hear from should | hold their own, Braxton's majority will be 723. FREDERICK COUNTY gives Greeley 562 and Hunton 579 majority.

CLARKE COUNTY.—In this county Greeley's majority is 220 and Hunton's 230—Walker's majority was 246.

ORANGE COUNTY .- Greeley's majority is upposed to be 125. WARREN COUNTY. - Greeley's majority 515

Hunton's majority 522. CULPEPER COUNTY. - Greeley 1,021; Grant .021-tie. Hunton 1,036; Daniels 1,011-Hunton's majority 25.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

The Grand Division of Sons of Temperance, now in session in Richmond, is in a good deal of trouble about the action of the Grand Worthy Patriarch in granting charters to subordi-Grand Scribe having refused to sign these char-The report of the Grand Worthy Patriarch so far as it relates to this subject was referred to a special committee. The committee made two reports—the majority sustaining the action of the Grand Worthy Patriarch. The minority report strongly censures this action of the head of the Order in the State, and demands a return of the charters thus issued. A substitute substantially endorsing the report of the majority, but differing in this that it requires a different password to be given to colored divisions, was offered, and adopted by a majority A very painful scene has been exhibiting in the Circuit Court room in Staunton for the last week, perhaps the most painful one that can be imagined—that of a woman telling the story of her shame in the witness box, The case on trial is that of Mrs. Sarah J. Garber against ing, some long ago given up to die by physi-David Myers. for $10,000 damages for breach | cians at home-all conditions and ages are repof promise of marriage, under which promise resented. Here is an old gentleman who looks she testified she was ruined. We learn from the Rockingham Register that Willis Gordon, a negro, has been arrested great atrocity.

on the line of the Shenandoah Valley Railroad through this county being nearly completed, the contractors are now finishing their work by constructing culverts wherever needed." R. S. Morgan, esq., a gentleman of high culture and unusual business capacity, who has resided in Charlottesville for some years past, has gone to Savannah, Georgia, to live.

vacancy occasioned by the death of Wm. McK. Mrs. Lucinda Marrow, for many years a resi-lent of Winchester died very suddenly at her residence in that place, on last Thursday. Mrs. M. taught school in Winchester for many years. Several bonfires were lighted in Leesburg on Wednesday night in honor of the election of Gen. Hunton.

The Internal Revenue collections in the Richmond district, for October, amounted to $281,040,92.

in Berryville. W. W. Flannagan and family, of Charlottesville, have returned from Europe.

his late home farm, called the "Lodge" lying near Oxen Hill, in this county, to a gentleman living in Washington city. The sale was—190 acres at $75 per acre, and the purchaser is prepared to make extensive improvements.

On Saturday last, the farm of Daniel Clarke, in Queen Anne district, was sold for the sum | Mariposa (Cal.) Gazette of September 20, re of $27 per acre; 643 acres were sold to Mrs. lates the following: Dr. Harding.

R. B. B. Chew, trustee of Richard Winfield, ington city, for $5,000 cash.

20 months, was choked to death on Sunday curses in bad English, were heard, and upon last with a chestnut.

sold 30 of his fine sheep at $30 per head, loss on the 18th of October by the death of one | bet that he never meddles with mutton. of his celebrated cattle, the 6th Earl of Oxford. This animal lately elicited much admiration at the Fair of the Maryland Agricultural

AN AMBITIOUS YOUTH in Charlestown, Mass. who has little money of his own but a wealthy father, recently conceived the brilliant idea of into it and stopped it from turning. It was giving a grand party at which all the notables cleaned out and was clogged several times of the country should be present. He accordagain during the day. Some of the eels were ngly sent invitations to distinguished men in all the States of the Union, including President Grant, Secretary Boutwell. Charles Francis Adams and Horace Greeley, also inclosing his own photograph. His orders for hall decorations were liberal, amounting to $12,000, flowers alone to the amount of $5,000 being included. The owner of the hall refused to allow the use of it without receiving $300 in advance. The young man's father refused to furnish the money and the magnificent party fell through. The old gentleman, however, had to spend a few hundreds in telegraphing the invited guests tean scarcely hold the pen. Don't fail to come mained several days, thence to Louisiana, Mo., where remained several days, thence to Louisiana, Mo., where we staid from 2 to 10 p. m.; from there where the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from there where the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from there where the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from there where the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from there where the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from there where the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from there where the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from there where the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from there where the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from there where the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from there where the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from the final from 2 to 10 p. m.; from th The counsel for the defence, with the view of preventing the reproduction of Miss Fewell, where we registered as John R. Lee and wife, an effectionate character passed between us.

Clark until we arrived at Mexico, I then gave it to him; during our relations several notes of it to him; during our relations several notes.

The Commonwealth here announced that track by land slides. It is expected that the track by land slides. It is expected that the track by land slides. It is expected that the track by land rederick is not the only valley county that is suffering from this fell visitation. In Augusta the same complaints are made and also in the same complaints are made and also in over .-- Fredericksburg Star.

"Our Home on the Hillside."

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette. NOVEMBER 4. - About two hundred feet up from the town of Dansville, stands an institution as peculiar in its critire management as are the views of its very singular founder. It is "OUR HOME ON THE HILLSIDE," and is a so-called water cure, though as will be seen, water is considered of less therapeutic

value than other agencies. Here from 250 to 300 invalids are constantly found sick with most of the chronic diseases that inflict humanity, dyspepties, rhumatics, and consumptives, making up perhaps the majority of the entire number. These stay here from four months to two years, according to the difficulties of their cures, and the readiness with which their diseases yield to the treatment employed. The principle on which is based the curative art practised here is a very simple one, viz: That there is in every constitution, not incur ably diseased, an inherent power of shaking off that disease, and of resuming its normal functions, provided that power, which they denominate "vital force," has an opportunity to act unobstructedly. Nothing new or strange in this, but in its application there is a novelty which will strike the reader if it does not mee his approval. It is held here that false meth ods of living are mainly, if not solely, at the foundation of our sickness, and instead of at tempting to cure diseases by the use of medicines, the only means made use of are food water, air and sunlight, and a revolution of habits. And first as to food, it is claimed that in nothing are we more unnatural than in our selection of food and in its preparation. Flour is used unbolted, and is ground from day to day as is needed. Bread is made of it without salt or yeast. Mush is made of the same flour and eaten without salt, but with milk and a little sugar. Meats are not as a rule recommended. It is claimed here that a large share of our diseases are caused by eating too largely of meat, and especially of diseased meat. Pork in every shape is forbid. It is pronounced scrofulous in tendency. Beef, mutton and game are allowed in very moderate quantities, and to some patients not at all. Butter is objected to. Fruits nate divisions composed of colored men. The are eaten in large quantity. Tea and coffee are not allowed. Now imagine yourself at such ters they were issued without his signature a table, without meat, salt, pepper, vinegar or and ten divisions have thus been organized. - any of the usual condiments: the food cooked without salt, the fruit mostly cooked without sugar, without tea or coffee, with uncleavened bread made of unbolted flour, and you have a table certainly not tempting to most persons. Pastry is made without lard, cream being substituted. So much for the table. The other remedies, water, air and sunlight are used as prescribed by the physicians; water for baths which are taken daily in some form, air, all that can be gotten, and sunlight, as it can be endured. It is a singular spectacle to see lying all about on cots and stretchers, men and women in the sunshine, asleep or awake, resting or talking. It is a still more singular sight to see them when they meet one, emaciated, hol low-eyed and feeble, in almost all stages and conditions of chronic disease, yet all, as a rule, cheerful, contented and sanguine of restora tion. Many of them are invalids of years stand as though he had seen enough of life to be able to retire from it altogether on his stock of ex perience, and here is a poor little child, scrofulous from birth, with a distorted spine and lady; I walked up to her and, asked her if she ington gone; I thought I had been robbed and poor but respectable white girl, living in the Canada, another from Texas, some from South was'nt Miss F.; she said yes and told me she told him of it, he said he had taken the Chesnut Ridge. The girl represents that the Carolina, and still another from Switzerland. was going to Washington to be married; I re- money; he was angry that the publication had outrage was committed under circumstances of Every section almost of this continent is represented. Some well enough to take long walks The Clarke Courier says: - "The graduation | some only able to get about as they are helped, others confined entirely to their rooms. Over this crowd of invalids there is swayed a fores: that seems magnetic in the person of the chief physician, Dr. J. C. Jackson. It is a common thing for people to have faith in their physician, but for 300 chronic invalids to be swayed and influenced as are these people here, has something in it of the marvellous. He talks to them, gets them together and lecturers and Jos. T. Logan, esq , has been elected Clerk preaches to them in every way in which he can of the County Court of Rockingham, to fill the possess himself of their intelligence and command their will; he goes at them, and the result is a body of invalids animated by a common purpose to do nothing that will make them sick, and to do everything that will make them well. Now for the results. Remembering that a large number of these people were invalids for years, and not a few of them pronounced incurable previous to their coming here, the death rate is less among them than in the community at large around them; that more than ninty-five out of a hundred get welk or have their health so re-established that they are able to get comfortably through life. Re-A sumas mill is soon to be put in operation | call the further fact that to not one of these persons is given an atom of medicine, and we have certainly some very remarkable facts from which to make deductions. It is not the business of your correspondent to argue the PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY ITEMS. - Rich | merits of this practice, but simply to show how ard Q. Bowling, has made sale of a portion of | people may get well by living simply and plainly, with temperance in eating and abstinence

How to Catch a Chicken Thief.—The

A gentleman who lives at Sebastopol has been annoyed of late by the loss of chickens, ately sold 25 acres of land near Green Hill, the | through the instrumentality of some heathen estate of Geo. W. Riggs, in Bladensburg dis- Chinee. Last week he had occasion to shu up trict, to Mrs. Mary Anna Forsyth, of Wash- an old buck in his chicken-house, and the reogton city, for $5,000 cash.

The child of Mr. Wm. Fugan, aged about yells, mixed up with frantic cries and awful going to the scene a sprawling Mongolian was Gov. Bowie has lately disposed of 26 cattle found "with a head on him," and an old ram of various ages at $100 per head. He has also going for him with a vengeance. That Celestial may at some time, in a fit of abstraction, Mr. Coffin, of Muirkirk, met with a great eat fried chicken, but it is more than an even

A MILL STOPPED BY EELS.-Last week a most remarkable stoppage of a mill by eels Society, in Baltimore, and was valued at clogging the wheel, occurred at Hundly's mill, $2,000.—Marlborn' Md., Prince Georgian. stopped and the miller upon searching out the cause, found the wheel was closed by eels to the quantity of several bushels, which had gotten two or three feet long .- Staunton Vindicator.

CORRECTION. - The latest official report of the election returns received at the Clerk's Office this evening, gives Loudoun county to Greeley by an overwhelming majority of 1. The man that cast that decisive vote ought to receive a vote of thanks for saving the hitherto unsullied reputation of Loudoun county.-Leesburg Telegram

No. 4. of the Cyclopedia of the best thoughts of Charles Dickens, has been issued by Messrs. E. J. Hale & Son, of New York, fully equalling any of the previous numbers of this very interesting volume.

business.